UNION MEDICAL MISSIONARY WORK.
Dr. J. Webb Anderson reported as follows:—"Certain suggestions for union medical work having been submitted by the Canton Christian College, your managing committee believes that here there is the basis of a most advantageous union, and unanimously recommends the Society to sanction union medical work on the basis of the following plans:—

To form a union between the University Medical School and the Medical Missionary Society, to be named (say) "The University Union Medical College."

2. To create a local Board of Managers of, say, six members: three from the Managing Committee of the Society and three from the University Medical School.

3. To let the preliminary years of the Medical Course be taken at the Canton Christian College and the finishing years at the Society's College.

4. That the Faculty of the Union College should be appointed by the Board of managers and to be approved of by both Colleges. That the curriculum should be drawn up by the Faculty and to be approved by the Board of Managers and by both Colleges.

5. The duties of the Dean of Faculty, in addition to any teaching work to which he may be appointed by the Faculty and the Board of Managers, to be to administer the affairs of the College in accordance with the wishes of the Faculty and the Board of Managers.

6. All decisions of the Board of Managers to be ratified by both Colleges.

7. Other Missions (or the South China branch of the China Medical Missionary Association) joining the Union shall be given a proper proportionate representation on the Board of Managers.

On the motion of Dr. Kirk, seconded by Mr. Paget, Dr. Anderson's report was accepted.

Dr. Anderson moved "That this Society

Work."

Simmons spoke in favour of the motion.
The motion was unanimously carried.

Mr. C. S. Paget then moved:—"That a sub-committee of three be appointed to confer with the Committee of three appointed by the University Medical School and that this sub-committee consist of the two medical members of the Managing Committee together with the Hospital Superintendent; this sub-committee to report to the Managing Committee."

Rev. E. Devotie seconded the motion and it was unanimously carried.

Dr. Swan moved that a cordial vote of thanks be accorded Drs. Craig, Shelby, Reber, McCracken, Old and J. Webb and College during the year. Mr. Paget her valued help in the administration of the hospital during the year. The motion was carried unanimously.

After a cordial vote of thanks to the Chairman the meeting adjourned.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MANAGING COMMITTEE.

The general work of the Hospital has been carried on with good results during the year. There has been no interruption in the routine work of the Hospital or College.

The abstract of the Medical Superintendent's report presented to us shows that the ## attendance and amount of work done compares favourably with the previous year. The Hospital and College premises are in good order and no extensive repairs are likely to be needed during the coming year.

In July we authorized the erection of a small house near the Bund front to be used as a residence for Mrs. Irga, the Hospital Matron, it being necessary to provide her with house accommodation. This expense of about fifteen hundred dollars was met from surplus income on the Hospital working account.

We are pleased to report that a physician has been secured for the much needed increase of the Hospital staff. We are indebted to Rev. R. H. Chambers for his interest and service in selecting this physician, while he was in America on furlough.

The question of Union Medical Education has received our special consideration and we feel that progress has been made in this line.

This matter will be made the subject of a special report.

The Medical College with thirty-three students enrolled has had a very successful year. Seven students are in the graduating class.

This educational work is financially independent of hospital funds.

MACAO NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

MACAO, February 4.
An accidental explosion of six ready packed lots of fire-crackers ignited the contents of a small tenement close to the rear of the Italian Convent in San Antonio and the fire brigade hurried to the spot at the sound of the fire alarm at 2.30 a.m. to-day. The firemen set about actively pulling down the house adjoining the burning premises and thus stayed the further progress of the flames. No fatalities occurred.

We learn that the Rio Lima was sold to a native merchant in Hongkong for the sum of $20,000 and further that the new owner intends putting her on the Hongkong-Hoihow run.

MACAO, January 6.
Our good bishop Dom Jose Paulino d'Azevedo e Castro was 58 years old on Friday last. He was born at Villa da Lages on the Island of Pico in the Azores and graduated from the University of Coimbra a Doctor of Theology. At one time Rector of the Seminary at Angra (Azores) he was created a bishop in 1903. St. Joseph's College was in the for the occasion on 4th inst. At 7 a.m. His Lordship officiated at a low mass and administered the Holy Water to over 400 communicants. At 9 a.m. in the meeting hall of the Congregation of the Blessed Virgin Mary the members presented an address which prefaced the solemn unveiling of a life size portrait of the good prelate. On his way back to the episcopal palace the bishop halted at the Salesian buildings where the lively strains of the College band signalled his approach. The Reverend Father Director tendered a most word of welcome and congratulation, which was followed by an address in Chinese from the students. Throughout the afternoon the bishop attended to the calls of an unending stream of well-wishers. At 6 p.m. a rehearsal dinner was served in St. Joseph's College at which the whole clerical body assisted. The Rev. Father Rector proposed the toast of the evening. At 7 p.m. the gathering adjourned to the dramatic hall which was radiant with hunting and evergreen garlands gauding in and out of happy decorative expressions of good wishes. The pupils gave an admirable display of histrionic efficiency during a drama in three acts and a one-act comedy which were interwoven with musical and oratorical gems in Latin, Chinese, Spanish and Portuguese. His Lordship was deeply affected by the tokens of loyalty and affection from his flock who dispersed at 11 p.m. one and all content with having made the worthy pontiff's heart rejoice. Ladies and children enjoyed a repeat performance of the theatricals yesterday at 2 p.m.

The regimental band, which they directed at the pretty nuptial ceremony at the Cathedral. Preceding Divine Mass at 10 a.m. the Reverend Canon Arraiga tied the conjugal knot between Miss Amalia d'Almeida, third daughter of Lieutenant Carlos d'Almeida and Mr. F.X. do Rozario of the Colonial Secretariat Hongkong. Mr. Lucio Xavier, of the local Cement Works, stood sponsor to the bridegroom and the happy duty to the charming bride of seventeen summers devolved on her brother, Mr. J. A. d'Almeida, of the G. P. O. Messrs. The Macao Hotel served the bridal party with a dainty breakfast at which the happy pair were heartily toasted on the motion of the best man, Mr. J. d'Almeida.

I have heard friendly inquiries from your end touching the total wreck of the Portuguese merchantman "H. Fook." 290 tons, off Tolo-Kam, Captain M. J. Nunes and crew are all safe.
Lisbon has at long last approved of the new agreement in toto for the tenure of the Santa Casa Lottery monopoly. The party, however, who was prepared to embark on the undertaking has withdrawn his proposal as he failed to secure the elimination of one long contested clause in the said terms. Hence we may expect an early demand for tenders. We do hope the Home Government will meet with better luck than they deserve.

The church of San Lázaro has shuffled off its scaffolding and is now quite smart and trim, in time for the year-end Thanksgiving Service of the native Christians.
The bridge across the river, which was the subject of a telephone warning, has been the subject of a telephone warning. The bridge was the subject of a telephone warning. The bridge was the subject of a telephone warning.

WHY PEOPLE DO NOT GO TO CHURCH.

A Reply to Critics and Demands.

In Union Church on Sunday morning the Rev. C. H. Hidding presided from the text, "The Lord is the Spirit" (9 Cor. 3:17). He said that during the main discussion on the above subject the main blame was laid on Ministers. Probably they deserved it and the occasional mustard plasters may possibly help them, or some of them—all sorts as they are. But the ministry is made up of the material supplied by and from the Churches. If the Churches retain their best men, such as, e.g., as these brilliant critics, for pursuits that bring more money, freedom and ease, then those who are willing for the ministry must go on doing their best under the fierce light that beats upon the pulpit.

Then also, missionaries are culpable.

They are all huddled together and labelled unpopular. Truly here and there may be found one who is many-sided and successful, whose zeal outruns his discretion. But this kind of person is to be found among other persons on board a ship. I would like to meet again the newspaper man who gambled daily and then borrowed money to pay his chits and tips, who preferred taking a friend or two to the Derby rather than keep an appointment and incidentally pay what he owed. No, on second thoughts

I would rather not meet such a cad. It would be unfair on my part to think meaning of the whole newspaper profession because of a few scoundrels. But this would be no more unfair than the position many take up regarding missionaries in the bulk and as a class.

In this discussion, however, the criticisms are stale and far less significant than the demands. And have again the only writers worthy of serious notice are the religious world. They make what can be demonstrated the test of what we may believe:

they have sympathy with good, rather than obedience to God. Man is the judge of God rather than God the judge of man. The man claims to be a part of the Christian Church with a right drawn from a common ideal or a vague spiritual sympathy, though they have really put away the most important parts of the common Faith.

Religion, such as, is a varying expression on the face of the great Unknown.

If Jesus Christ thought that He was God the Son and was consistent all through, it remains an open question whether He was.

The way of religion is not a commitment to the life of Jesus Christ for time and eternity but only a sympathetic consent to the life of Him as the best character who has appeared thus far. Man is really the centre of things. Any apparent authority is a mere matter of order and the most prominent the bottomical stance for once; obedience is in the hazy background. Jesus Christ and the Bible have only a relative value and this is nearly exhausted. The Holy Spirit is almost entirely a figure of speech.

The Church is a mere association of those

THE MOOSA CASE.

Before His Honor, Mr. W. Ross Davies,

Acting Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Congerr, sitting as a Full Court, at the Supreme Court this morning, the reserved points of law in the Moosa trial again came on for consideration.

Hon. Mr. F. A. Haselard, Attorney

General, said he proposed to deal with the first point and the question for the Court was the construction to be put on the firm name Moosa v. Veira and Co., which appeared in the body of the receiving order.

By a section in the Ordinance statutory permission had to be obtained to insert the name of the firm. That appeared also in other ordinances. The name of Moosa v. Veira and Co., appeared three times and it would be necessary to set out fifty-seven names in the receiving order.

The property of the firm was the property of the partners. It was debtors' position by himself on behalf of himself and his father. The strict consideration of a penal statute was mainly a protege preference and the fundamental principle was "What did the legislature intend?" To place the construction which his learned friend put on it would be to reduce the thing to an absurdity.

Mr. Slade also addressed the court.

Mr. Aldon-Potter, having replied their Lordships reserved judgment.
